THE >Impactus STORY

SOME OF US are working hard to be good men, but we do not know if what we are doing matters. Some of us are stuck because we have failed, or we are afraid to fail, so we never realize our full potential. Other men are content to not take life too seriously but end up leaving a trail of brokenness around them. There are men who always need control and power, and they also leave a trail of broken lives.

We are at best overwhelmed and, at worst, confused about what it means to be a man. We have very few coaches to point us in the right direction.

Twenty-five years ago, the mission of Promise Keepers Canada began. Our primary focus was to call men to gather at major men's conferences and challenge them to live out the 7 Promises of a Promise Keeper. Many men will say that some of their most impactful spiritual moments have come at these events. God has been faithful to use these conferences to shape the lives of more men than we can possibly count.

Three years ago, God began to show the leadership of Promise Keepers Canada something new. We have prayed and listened. We debated and prayed some more. As a ministry, we were convinced God is calling us to something new and more significant than we could have imagined 25 years ago. There are many stories where God confirmed this was the direction He wanted for men and for us. As a team, we are convinced God wants to multiply His mission for the hearts and lives of men, and it is time to go.

Welcome to Impactus. The meaning of this Latin word is to “press closely into something.” Jesus once told us, “I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.” (John 15:5)

Impactus is all about equipping men for a life of purpose and godly impact. It's a new name that today, stands side by side with Promise Keepers Canada and will one day stand on its own. <https://www.impactus.org/> is a hub for men globally, designed to address the questions and challenges men face through daily content including articles, podcasts, videos, and more. Impactus host small groups, workshops, leadership training and online live events to equip men to be all that God has called them to be. When permitted we will continue to host live in-person conferences to bring men together to worship and build community.

Impactus is the next chapter in our mission to reach more men for Jesus. We are living in uncertain days but have never been more certain that God wants to help more men have a life of purpose and godly impact
